

Index to the sheet numbers of the Six Inch Ordnance Survey Maps [1833 to c.1950] for Co. Londonderry

Note that, in this particular county, there is a pre-1905 and a post-1905 index. This is because the First Edition of the County Series of OS maps was replaced by the Second Edition c.1905 and certain changes were made to the areas covered by the maps west of Ballykelly. Note that these two grids are not drawn to scale and are only intended to give you an idea of which sheet or sheets would cover the area that you are researching. For the exact details of the sheet number or numbers for the map covering a particular townland see the Townlands in Co. Londonderry and their Administrative Divisions database at the Administrative Divisions link in the top menu of this website.
